Message

I would like to extend my sincere felicitations to East West University on organizing the 14th Convocation. I applaud the concerted efforts of the University's Board of Trustees, teaching and non-teaching staff and particularly the graduating students for successfully performing their duties through hard work and dedication.

This day, indeed, is a day of joy and celebration for the students and their proud parents and the university as well. I believe that the commitment of East West University to impart high quality state-of-the-art education will enable the graduates to excel in the highly competitive world outside.

I wish the graduates all the best in their life and career in future. I am sure they, as ambassadors of East West University, will make all of us proud by their contribution to the upliftment of the society. I would like to see the graduates of East West University excel in whatever profession they pursue in their future life.
