

Dilara Begum has recently got her PhD degree from Punjabi University, Patiala (India), Faculty of Education and Information Science, Department of Library and Information Science, under supervision and guidance of Professor (Dr.) Jagtar Singh for her thesis entitled "Awareness and Application of Information Literacy in Select Private University of Bangladesh: A Comparative Study."

Presently, she is serving as Librarian, Head of Library of East West University, Dhaka. Besides, she is also elected as Standing Committee Member of IFLA Information Literacy Section. She has also served as Country Coordinator for International Media and Information Literacy Consortium (IMILC), as well as General Secretary of the Digital Library Network of South Asia (DLNetSA) and Senior Vice-President of Library Association of Bangladesh (LAB).

As a pioneer PhD thesis on Information Literacy in Bangladesh, this research work will profoundly contribute to the future activities of Planners and Professionals of Bangladesh. Dilara Begum is the second daughter of Md. Enamur Rahman, Government officer (Rtd.) and Saleha Rahman of Sylhet, Jaintipur Upojila and Charikata Union. She is the spouse of Md Mainul Haque.