

Training on digital library system ends

The closing ceremony of training courses on 'establishment, administration and maintenance of an integrated digital library system' was held on East West University (EWU) campus in the capital yesterday, says a press release.

EWU Library organised a ten-day training courses in two phases at the request of Bank and Financial Institutions Division of Ministry of Finance.

The training courses, one from February 11 to 24 and another from March 23 to April 06, 2015, were held on EWU campus at Aftabnagar, Dhaka. A total of 41 officials from 23 different government banks and financial institutions of Bangladesh participated in the courses. The EWU Library team served as the resource team in the training courses.

Dr Mohammed Farashuddin, chairperson, Board of Trustees, EWU, and former governor, Bangladesh Bank, was the chief guest while M Aslam Alam, secretary, Bank and Financial Institutions Division, Ministry of Finance, was the special guest. Ahmed Shafee, EWU vice chancellor, chaired the programme. Certificates were distributed among the participants at the end of the programme.

Guests at a closing ceremony of training courses on digital library system on East West University campus in the capital yesterday. PHOTO: COURTESY