

Career Clinic programme held at EWU

Dr Tanbir Ahmed Chowdhury, chairperson of the Department of Business Administration of EWU (Left), gives away crest to Reckitt Benckiser official at a programme on the campus of the university in the capital yesterday:

PHOTO: COURTESY

with the speech of Professor Dr Tanbir Ahmed Chowdhury, chairperson of the Department of Business Administration and Dean of the faculty of Business and Economics.

Top HR managers from thirteen renowned companies of Bangladesh conducted the interviews to the participants. The main objective of this part was to give students the experience of how it would be like in an actual interview.

East West University Business Club (EWUBC) yesterday organised a programme for the students of East West University (EWU) on the university campus in the capital yesterday to develop all the skills that are necessary for the job market, says a press release.

The aim of the event was to evaluate how students are prepared about their future career and provide them a feedback where they need to perform better specifically relevant to the recruitment scenarios.

The beginning of the programme, the grooming session, was inaugurated