

Seminar held at East West University

East West University arranged a seminar titled "Child Marriage in Bangladesh: Current Situation and Potential Remedies" on Thursday on the campus, Aftabnagar in the capital, says press release.

The keynote presenters of the seminar were Dr Niaz Asadullah, Professor, University of Malaya, Malaysia and Dr Zaki Wahhaj, Associate Professor University of Kent, UK.

Dr Mohammed Farashuddin, chairperson, Board of Trustees, East West University and former governor, Bangladesh Bank chaired the seminar while Asaduzzaman Noor MP, Minister of Cultural Affairs was the chief guest and Mahbub Ara Begum Gini MP, member of the parliamentary standing committee on Women and children affairs was the special guest. Professor M Sekander Hayat Khan, Vice-chancellor (acting) of East West University delivered the welcome address at the seminar.