

Dr Peterson gives lecture at EWU

DHAKA, JULY 17: Professor David A Peterson of Department of Linguistics and Cognitive Science, Dartmouth College, NH, USA gave a lecture at the East West University English Department Seminar Series at the university on Sunday, says a press release.

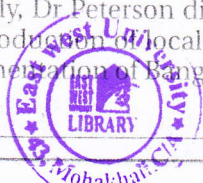

The title of the paper was 'Issues in the endangerment and documentation of Chittagong Hill Tracts Languages'.

Professor Ahmed Shafee, Vice Chancellor of East West University, gave a short speech in this programme, and handed over a crest to Dr Peterson.

The programme had provided the students of the Department of English ideas about endangered languages and how students studying in the field of linguistics can play a vital role in language documentation. Finally, Dr Peterson discussed elements of linguistic training that he views as essential to production of local linguists who are prepared to make lasting contributions to the documentation of Bangladeshi languages.
