

Chief Minister of the State of Meghalaya, India, Conrad K Sangma speaks at an education discussion organized by East West University at Aftabnagar in the city held recently.

Meghalaya Chief Minister speaks at education discussion of EWU

Campus Report

Chief Minister of the State of Meghalaya, India, Conrad K Sangma assured that the infrastructure of the Dazeki land port will be significantly improved soon. He highlighted the potential for increasing trade in several sectors of Bangladesh and the northeastern states of India. These include: tourism, cement, ceramics, agricultural products and so on. He also mentioned the advantages of importing to these states through the use of the facilities of Chattagram port.

Conrad K Sangma told these at a discussion program on education, investment, industry and commerce held at East West University (EWU) on Thursday at Aftabnagar in the city. On the occasion, Fazle Kabir, Governor of Bangladesh Bank urged the government delegation and businessmen of Meghalaya accompanying the Chief Minister to take advantage of investment in the Export Processing Zones (EPZs) of Bangladesh.

Syed Marwoze Elahi, Chairperson of the Board of Trustees of the EWU, and a former Adviser to the Caretaker Government of Bangladesh, Dr Mobarramed Farashuddin, Chief Adviser of EWU and former Governor of Bangladesh Bank, Professor Dr MM Shahidul Hassan, Vice Chancellor of EWU and Dr AK Enamul Haque, Professor, Department of Economics, EWU also participated in the program.

Besides, the Minister of Education, Minister of Commerce and Trade of Meghalaya, and some top businessmen of Bangladesh, members of the Board of Trustees, EWU and teachers and students of various departments of the university were also present in the program.