The East West University (EWU) authorities inaugurated a Shaheed Minar on the campus in the capital's Aftabnagar area and paid tribute to the language martyrs by placing wreaths at it marking the International Mother Language Day on Monday.

The ceremony was held in the morning with the participation of all stakeholders of the university.

Syed Manzur Elahi, chairperson of the board of trustees of EWU, and Prof Dr Mohammed Farashuddin, chief adviser of EWU, were present on the occasion.

Dr Farashuddin said that the students of the university will be better prepared to capture the spirit of the International Mother Language Day as they now have their own Shaheed Minar.

On the occasion, a prayer was offered seeking eternal peace of the language martyrs and greater prosperity of Bangladesh.

Members of the board of trustees, teachers, other officials and students of EWU attended the event in compliance with health safety rules.
