Message

I extend my heartiest congratulations to East West University on organizing its 10th convocation ceremony. Since its beginning in 1996 East West University has proven to be a leading private university of the country providing excellence in teaching and research. I am pleased at the role being played by East West University in enhancing the reputation of private university education by its performance till now. I believe East West University will continue to excel in the coming years.

On this solemn but happy occasion I take the opportunity to offer my felicitations to the graduates, the proud guardians and all members of the East West University family who have played a part in making the ambitions of the graduates bear fruit this day.

(Nurul Islam Nahid, M.P)
